Annual Greeting MERRY CHRISTMAS

HAPPY NEW YEAR,

Dolls, Wax Dolls. TOYS, TOYS, TOYS.

As I walked down the street, there I found Ridley's store; And every boy and girl, I guess, has been there before; But they never saw the pretty things he has on hand to-day, For he traded with St. Nicholas when he came this way. He has barking dogs and babies that make every kind of noise; He has puzzles, games, alphabets, and pictures not a few; And baskets for the million, and a million baskets too.

At the corner of Grand and Allen-sts. the flag is flying high, As if to call the people, to the cheapest place to buy;
To buy dolls of chins, dolls of wool, and dolls that run and walk,
And dolls of wax, and wooden dolls that laugh and cry and talk; For he bought such a lot, that he sells them on the spot, At less than wholesale prices, to dispose of the lot.

And the farms, and barns, and kitchens, butcher shops, and stables fige, With dainty parlors, walnut sots and trunks are arranged in line.

So, Children do n't forget to go and call at Ridley's store, At the corner of Grand and Alien-sta. with the flag above the tower; The singing birds will welcome row, woully lambs will blest, And the clowns and circus riders perform some funny feats. There you'll find Saint Nick at his merry old trick Of counting out his treasures, to fill the stockings quick. He has caudies for the Christmus tree, and marbles, tops, and halls, And wee balloons, and cooking stoves, and half a million dolls

SATURDAY, Dec. 13-P. M. The general business of the week presents no especially striking feature, though the steady improvement in the condition of the banks and the ingive a tone of confidence to mercantile circles not heretofore existing since the panic. Breadstuffs and provisions have been irregular and more or less been ice-bound. The tendency in bread-stuffs has been downward, though with comparaavely small stocks on hand. At the close of navigation an advance in prices is naturally anticipated. Groceries have ruled firm, with a further advance in coffee. The dry goods market is fairly active for the season, with a slight improvement in domestic cotton goods and in foreign fabrics, though the of the near-by trade. The movement in cotton shows an increase in the receipts and a decrease in the exports over last week. Prices have luctuated fractionally and close firm on a moderate business, largely for future delivery. The total receipts for the week were 172,910 bales, against 170,084 last week, 123,879 the previous week, and 133,386 bales three weeks since, the total receipts since Sept. 1 being 1,323,189 bales, against 1,401,272 bales for the corresponding period of last year. The exports for the week were 77,155 bales, against 62,785 bales in 1872. The stock on hand consists of 525,461 bales against 474,625 same time in 1872. U. S. bonds have been in active demand, and show a flattering advance in prices, while State bonds have been without movement. Railway mortgages are growing in favor as investments, especially those securities which are of unquestion able soundness, and there appears to be some disposition to speculate in some of the bonds now "under a cloud." The general share speculation continues to tend upward, and while the market, naturally enough, occasionally meets with a set-back resulting from sales to realize profits, the quite general belief of the street is that the constitutional bears as yet lack the courage to sell short, and that prices are destined to go considerably higher. The bulls base their confidence in the future of price upon the now admitted fact that the currency is t be inflated at least to the extent of the forty-fou million reserve; that with only $17,000,00 or $18,000,000 of that reserve already set loose, money is comparatively easy, cal loans on good collaterals ranging from 5 to 7 pe cent, while first-class mercantile paper is in good request at more reasonable rates of discount, the very choicest bills having sold to-day as low as 7 per cent; that the banks are now strong and are growing stronger every day, which enables them not only to accommodate their mercantile customers but to afford facilities to the stock brokers, and that a considerable portion of the enormous sums to be paid out in the form of interest and dividends by the Government and corporate institutions during the month of January will seek investments in Wall-st. securities at their present comparatively low prices. The advance in Government bonds for the week has been from 11 to 21 per cent. With the exception of Pacific Mail. which declined i per cent during the week, and Eric, which went off 32, there has been an advance in stocks ranging from 1 to 5j per cent, viz: Panama Railroad, 51; North-West and St. Paul Common, each 31 per cent; Rock Island, 31; Union Pacific, 32; N. J. Central, 31; St. Paul Preferred, 27; Lake Shore, 21;

Lackawanna and Western, 11, and Hannibal and St. Joseph, 1 per cent. To-day there was everything in the state of the natural atmosphere to prevent an active business at the Exchange, and yet the market was an active and remarkably strong one, yielding occasionally to the desire to realize profits, strengthening again when it was found that the offerings, though many, were not excessively large in their aggregate amount, recovering to the highest point as the improved condition of the banks became known, and finally at the close showing a decided gain on almost the entire list as compared with the first prices of the morning. An examination of the table of opening and closing prices shows a gain of 11 in Western Union, 11 in North-Western, 1 in Harlem, & each in Central and St. Paul, l each in Lake Shore and Pacific Mail, in Union Pacific and C., C. and I. C. Eric alone of all the usual speculative favorites was down, having dropped fully a half per cent, while a security known as Atlantic and Pacific Preferred was so far deferred as to fall off one point in spite of the most praiseworthy efforts to galyanize it into life. Additional strength was given to the market in the afternoon by the announcement that the Treasury had issued $221,000 more of the tetired greenbacks, putting up the total to $373,221,000, an encroachment of $17,000,000 and upward on the so-called reserve. Following this comes a dispatch which stated that Secretary Richardson had declared it to be necessary to put affoat the entire

The subjoined table shows the extreme fluctuations in United States bonds, the leading railway and miscellaneous shares and gold made during the past week, as well as the closing quotations of each made at the dates undermentioned:

The gold market was strong, and advanced from 109] at the opening to 110], and closed at 110] to 110], after a daily range of 1001 to 1101, and weekly extremes of 109@1101. The business was small, and the market uninfluenced by any new element, save, with the steadily diminishing rates of discount, perhaps, the more confident belief in inflation. On gold loans the rates were 6, 7, 5, and 4 per cent for carrying. The London news was meager, reporting Consols steady, United States bonds strong and higher, and Eric weak. The import en affected by the varying prospects as to the reopening of the canals, which would set affect considerable stocks that have were $614,461, and for general merchandise, $3,903,703, welling a total of $4,518,164 in coin valuation. The making a total of $4,518,164 in coin valuation. The specie exports are given elsewhere. The Assistant Treasurer paid out $55,000 in redemption of called Five-Twenties, making a total for the week of $851,000. The weekly disbursements of coin interest amounted to $377,000, inclusive of $66,000 to-day. The money market has been quiet and easy to approved borrowers, who have been accommodated freely at 6 and 7 per cent, the closing quotation being 5 and 6. Prime mercantile paper is in demand at 9 to 12 per cent, as a rule, but has been taken today as low as 7, 74, and 8, and as high as 15. Good paper is growing in favor. The loan certificates outstanding amount to about $4,500,000. The bank statement is extremely favorable, showing an increase in all the items but circulation. The banks now hold over ten millions in surplus-a gain since last week of $3,002,500. The legal tenders held collectively by the banks show an average of $42,060,600, despite the heavy outflow during the week, though as the statement is made on rising averages, the banks are really better off than they appear. $44,000,000 legal tenders, even should Congress adopt his recommendations in regard to taxation. This, however, did not for the time, stimulate any improved buying movement, although, with the Span-ish question well out of the way, a pronounced ...140 policy in favor of at least a mild inflation, and a bullish sentiment already well developed, it is idle

In railroad bonds of every description there is more than common activity, fr default and command but 25 cents on the dollar up to the best sorts. Nearly all the grades of bonds issued by the well-established railroads have advanced from the low point touched during the panie, but many of them are still below par, and are probably good for a still further appreciation, and the following were the bids:
